Amount of background underestimation divided by input signal